Fine Affair For Restoration Fund

The affair at La Playa last Friday evening, modestly announced as a dance to raise funds for the restoration of Carmel Mission, developed into an event of considerable importance, in that an opportunity was afforded those attending, through the address of Rev. Raymond M. Mestres, to acquire a better knowledge of the Mission and to plant in the minds and hearts of people a love for the material works of Padre Junipero Serra.

Father Mestres sketched briefly the historic episodes of the Mission—its foundation in 1771, its most prosperous period under Spanish possession, its destruction and abandonment when Mexico ruled, and the present plans for its restoration to its former physical beauty and spiritual influence.

Illustrating the address there was shown a magnificent drawing of the restoration plans prepared by architect Bernard R. Maybeck.

In conversation with the writer, Father Mestres told of his hope to some day make his home at the Mission. He has been parish priest here for many years. Again and again have offers come to him inviting him to minister elsewhere, but all of these tenders have been declined for love of the old Mission.

The dance itself was a grand success, and $100 was realized. The expense of the splendid four-piece orchestra was borne by Mrs. R. C. Kirchner of Detroit, a La Playa guest. Other expenses were met by the hotel management. The decorating—with poppies and ferns—was the work of Harrison and Frederick Godwin.

Very shortly now a campaign is to be inaugurated in Carmel to obtain members in the Mission Restoration League, a State wide organization. Details will be given later.

Pine Needles

"What are you going as?" This coming Saturday (Valentine Night) will occur the annual masque ball of the Manzanita Club. Rig up a costume and join the revelers.

Miss I. M. Curtis, one of our resident artists, left on Tuesday morning for Pasadena, where she will hold a ten-day exhibition of her paintings.

Beginning on Thursday evening of next week the Carmel Methodist Church will hold regular prayer-song service at 7:45, followed by choir practice. The Sunday School board has charge of the meeting.

Call on L. S. Slevin for Notary work.

The Carmel Bird Club will meet with Mrs. Hartley Anderson, in the Merriam cottage, corner Ocean and Carmelo avenues, tomorrow afternoon.

An automobile you will be proud to own—the Briscoe C. O. Goold, Carmel Garage, local dealer.

Mrs. Celia E. Parker of Riverside is a guest at the home of D. W. W. Johnson, whose cousin she is.

Los Angeles and vicinity will be the stamping ground of Major Harry A. James for several months to come. He departed on Tuesday morning to take up his work in the south. The Forest Theatre organization will have to get a new secretary.

Mrs. Rose J. DeYoe is expected home from Honolulu on the 20th. She leaves her sister, Mrs. Wood, in much better health than when she arrived in the islands.

This being Lincoln's Birthday, it's a legal holiday. The Postoffice will be open from 1 to 2 only. And the public school will be closed all day. A baseball game is scheduled for the afternoon.

Mrs. Comins is here from Santa Barbara with her friend, Miss Eleanor Clark, and they will remain for some time.

Mrs. R. S. Tuttle, who has been visiting at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. L. Rask, has returned to her Watsonville home.

Now Is The Time To Build

MAKE your vacant property begin to earn. EITHER live in the house yourself and save your rent—or rent it and make a good profit on your investment. SOMEONE must profit by the high rents of the present and future. WHY not you? I will advise with you.

Don't Try to Get Them All at One Time

Our Carmel abalone gatherers should exercise discrimination as to the number they take from the rocks.

According to a report made to the Federal Fish and Game Commission the abalone will be extinct in three years, unless the greed of the gatherers is promptly checked.

This edible bivalve is mighty scarce right now at Pismo Beach, San Luis Obispo Channel Islands and on the rocky shores of Mendocino county. And in Monterey canneries are finding it difficult to obtain a supply sufficient to fill orders.

Carmel without abalone would be like "Hamlet" without the melancholy Dane.

So let's maintain a supply.

Any Barrels?

A most gratifying meeting of the Community Club was held on Monday afternoon at the home of the President, D. W. Willard. Fourteen names were added to the membership roll. There was a general discussion of the work which the club anticipates doing, and all seemed much interested.

The club would like a donation of empty barrels, to be used as receptacles for garbage. Any who can furnish one or two will please leave name and address at Pine Cone office.

Matrimonial Bureau Fails to Function

Carmel, Cal., Jan. 29

W. L. Overstreet,

Weekly Pine Cone,

Dear Sir:

In your anniversary issue of February 5 I notice a letter from

"Lonely Maid," with the caption

"He Stands Without Hitching."

Might I not inform Lonely Maid thru your columns that he not only "stands without hitching," but that he also has two perfect teeth and they both hit. I might add, however, that if Lonely Maid were not passably good-looking,

the young man in question would have to be "hitched" mighty fast.

The suggestion about publishing my picture might ruin my chances. The Police Gazette has exclusive rights to my photo. As far as my age is concerned, my good points, etc., I feel that Lonely

Maid might easily have secured information, as suggested in the Observer's column.

Say, Lonely Maid, I'm afraid

you are not in earnest, and it looks to me as if you will be lonely the rest of your life. You allowed the young man to get out of town

(and I notice you question his youthfulness) without making personal inquiries. Are you ashamed of seeking a convenient husband other than thru letter-writing?

Remember, it is leap-year, and faint heart ne'er won a husband.

Go after them personally and boldly.

Your warning regarding the government and profiteering is rather a joke on yourself. I am sure your partner would be a silent one and that his fingers would never untie the purse-strings of your pocket-book.

Yours in despair,

THE YOUNG MAN

Boosts and Knocks

By Observer

Today is the birthday of the Great Emancipator. Oh, if we only had a Lincoln now!

Senator Hiram Johnson has the flu. I'll bet his friend, Editor Overstreet, is worried.

I'm glad that La Playa dance was not on St. Patrick's Day, else I wouldn't have worn that yellow ribbon on a bet. Make it green next time, Harrison.

There are a number of clubs in this town, but there is always room for one more. Why not start a "Don't Talk About Your Neighbor Club." It's needed here, I'll tell the world.

I remember the time when friend wife was reluctant to send her husband to the store with five dollars, because of the size of the package he brought home. But we are now living under the dry regime.

Last week Bob Norton advertised a new departure in his store. If you purchase five dollars worth at one time your package is delivered free. Just what could one get for five bones, Bob, that the buyer could not tote home?

And now one of our local girls has gone into the manufacturing business. She is making a delicious candy and it is being put upon the market under the trade name of "Karas Kreams." If everyone will boost, Carmel will benefit by the advertising.

I know a fellow in Carmel who bought some potatoes last week and decided to boil them. Later he attempted to jab a fork into their hides, but found only water. He is about to write a story entitled "The Mystery of the Boiled Potatoes." Surely it's an ill wind that blows no one good; you see it gave him an idea—and even the movie people are paying for ideas.

The Manzanita Club masque ball on Saturday night is going to be some grand affair if the success of past events of the kind be a criterion. I'll never forget the las masquerade I attended. Just after unmasking time I asked a young lady why she did not remove her mask. I beat it hastily when she informed me that she was not wearing one.

VALENTINE VERSES.

By Mary Humphrey.

To a Girl He Left Behind.

Dear Girl of My Dreams, I am coming,
Back from war I am coming to you;
And I wonder what fate will be waiting for me,
And will you be glad I came through?
It's so strange. They have called me
a brave man,
And they gave me a medal or two;
In the fight I feared nothing—and yet
I'm afraid
Of a small brown-eyed person like you!

No chance for me—I know it,
I'm such a roughneck guy—
But if I thought you'd look at me,
Oh, Bey! I'd make the try.
Believe me, you're some fairy,
You're better'n I deserve;
I'd send a Valentine—but gee,
I just ain't got the nerve!

A Substitute.

A Valentine I've tried to find
That's nice enough for you;
But there is none—so here's my heart;
I hope that it will do.

To His Mother.

Today an old sweetheart of mine
Is my most precious Valentine;
My best and oldest sweetheart you
Are, mother dear. So loyal, true
And tender always. And your love
I cherish over and above
Earth's fairest gifts. You've made of me
All that I am and hope to be,
Mother mine,
My Valentine.

To His Fairy.

If I just dared to say it,
You sure can bet I would Right up and tell you what I feel—Gee, but I wish I could!
Oh, kiddo, you're so classy,
With those big eyes of blue,
You've got the others beat a mile—
There sure ain't none like you.

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

NIAGARA FALLS.

If you can imagine a river three-fourths of a mile wide, 20 feet deep in the middle, and containing thousands and thousands of tons of water, suddenly tumbling over a cliff 100 feet high and dashing on the rocks below with a deafening roar and throwing up huge clouds of mist and spray, you have some impression of what Niagara Falls, the world's best-known and most popular waterfall, is like.

This majestic cataract is situated in the Niagara river, between Lake Erie and Lake Ontario and near the city of Buffalo, N. Y. Ny-ah-ga-rah is an Indian word, meaning Thundering Waters. Members of the Seneca tribe, 'tis said, considered the roar of the falls as the voice of the Great Spirit. Thinking he inhabited the spray, they made many and various offerings to this deity.

The waterfall divides itself into two parts, American Falls and the Horseshoe or Canadian Falls. Nine-tenths of the flow, which is estimated to be 500,000 tons per minute, passes over the Horseshoe Falls, which is by far the more impressive of the two.

Below the falls the river is considerably narrower than it is above the falls, and the water rushes, at a frightful speed, through a seven-mile-long gorge, in which is located the famous Whirlpool Rapids.

The edge of the cliff over which the water plunges into the canyon below, wears away at the rate of about five feet a year. Geologists declare that this mighty fall has been in operation for about 20,000 years.

LINCOLN THE "MOST SCULPTURED MAN."

Lincoln has been the subject of more heroic statues than any other American. On this page are reproduced five of the most prominent examples.

Masterpiece of St. Gaudens in Lincoln Park, Chicago.

Statue at Rochester, N. Y., Considered Masterpiece of Leonard Volk.

The Criticized Cincinnati Lincoln. By George Barnard.

FATE AND LINCOLN

Nearly a century and a half ago a father working in his field in a Kentucky clearing was shot and killed by Indians. His three sons were with him. The oldest ran to the house and reached it unharmed. The next in age ran in another direction for the nearest settlement. The youngest, a boy of six, was seized by one of the attackers.

When the oldest boy looked out, after barring the door, he saw his brother in the grasp of an Indian. He took down the family musket, aimed through an opening and shot the Indian dead. The boy, released, made his way to the house. In a few hours a rescuing party from the settlement drove the raiders away.

The six-year-old boy was Thomas Lincoln. He became the father of The Younger Lincoln. By An. Abraham Lincoln.

Thirty-two years later two boys, chums, were strolling along Knob creek, Hardin county, Kentucky. The younger, only seven years old, attempted to swing himself over the creek on a sycamore tree. Midway he lost his hold and fell in. The other rescued him. The rescuer's name was Gallagher, and but few men have been privileged to perform equal service for their country.

The boy he rescued was Abraham Lincoln. Twice death was cheated that America might be saved. It was chance, or something else. Most Americans prefer to believe it was something else.—Minneapolis Tribune.
